

Getting Faster around the world

Let's get on our horses and join in this rhyme-

Did you notice it getting faster at the end?

- Getting faster in music is called 'accelerando' (ack-chell-e-ran-do)

- This is an Italian word.
- Italian words are used to give instructions in music.

- When music gets faster it adds excitement and drama.
- All over the world people make their music get faster when they want this effect. Especially in dance music.....

Let's go to Peru and listen to the panpipes play 'Sikuriadas' and listen to how it gets faster - can you keep the beat ?
