L.O. To respond to a text – illustration 6th May 2020

Re-read the passage from yesterday's lesson, ask someone to read it to you, or maybe record it for yourself so you can play it over again.

After you have read the extract a few times, think about what you can see in your imagination...

Did you imagine the toys in the shop?

Did you add anything else around the shop that helps you place it in a wider setting?

What came to mind when you read about the overwhelming silence?

What about Noah? Did you imagine him from the outside looking in, or inside the shop?

Task

Take a pen or pencil and a bit of scrap paper. You can use the back of an old envelope, letter or cereal packet; whatever is to hand! Draw what you see in your mind's eye; anything that captures the place and the mood of this extract.

Add any words and phrases that have helped you make your picture, which might come from the passage or from your own imagination.
