

Imagine the best playground ever

- Re-read The Swing Poem, imagine you have been playing in the very best playground ever!
- What was in it? What were you playing? Who was playing with you?
- Draw and label a picture of your playground.

Add as much detail as possible, you will be writing sentences about your playground!

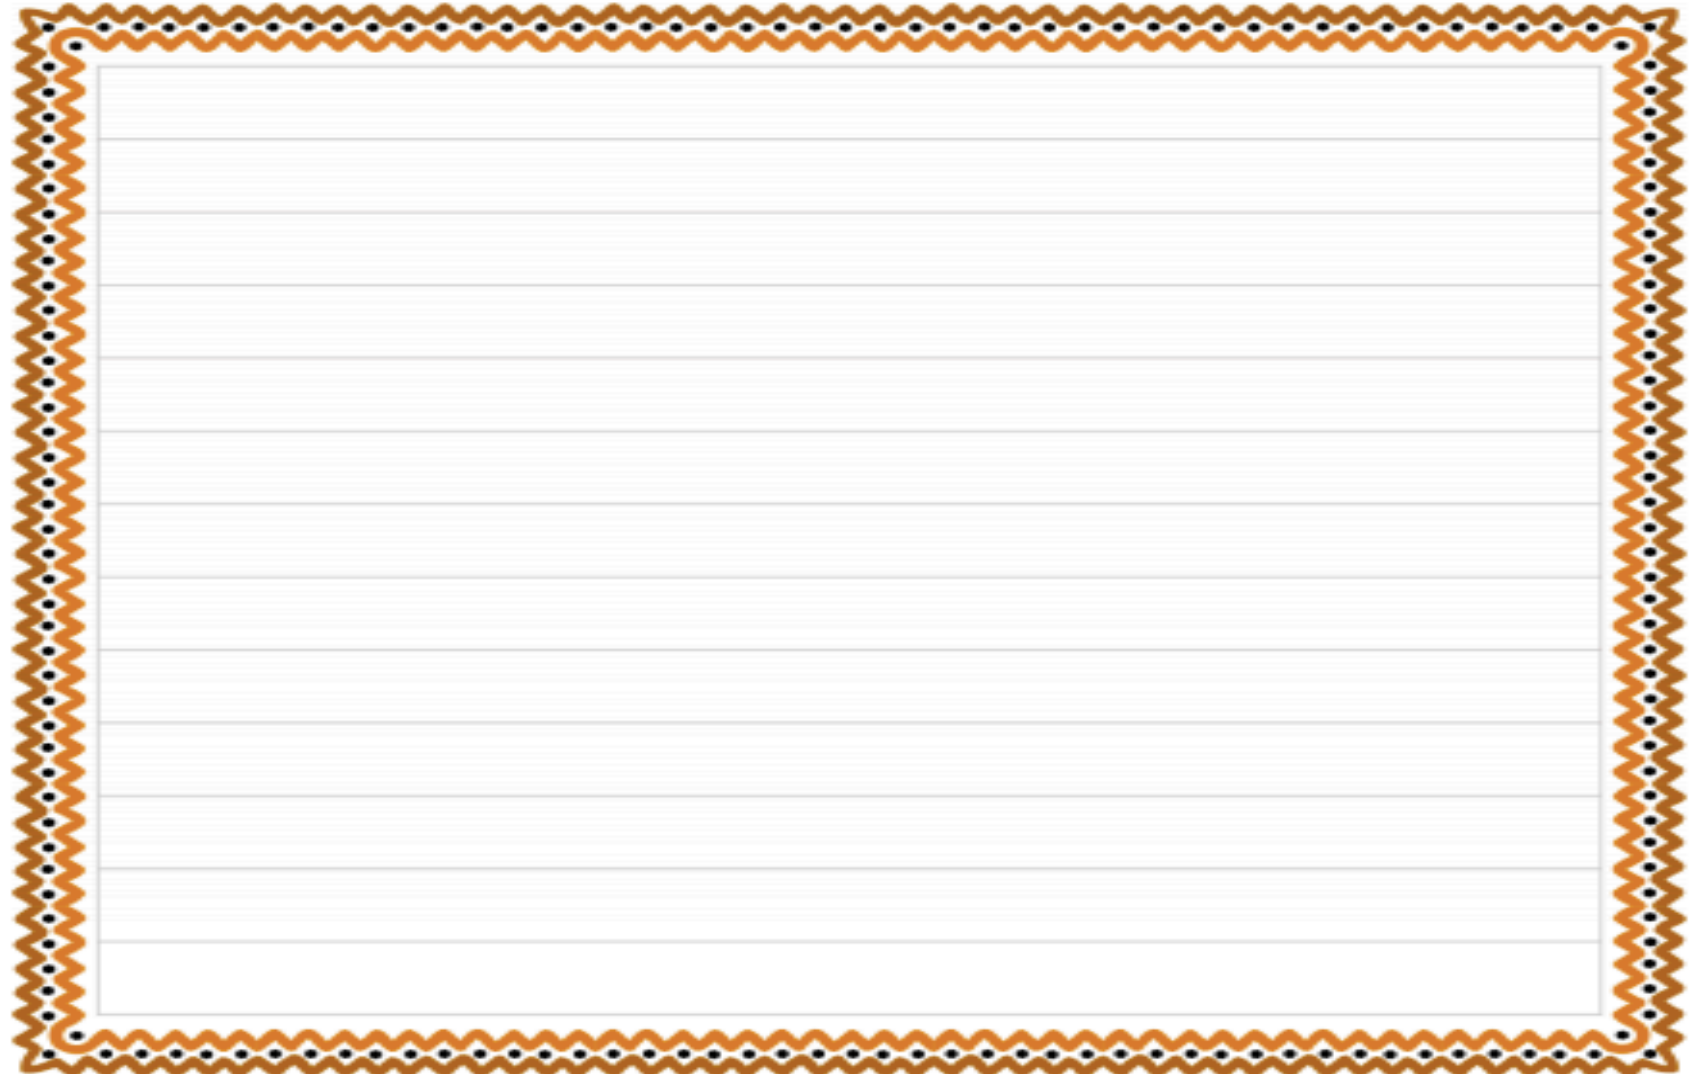

The best playground ever

Draw you and your friends playing in the best playground ever.

The best playground ever

Write some sentences in the progressive form to say what you and your friends were playing and doing in the best playground ever.

- Write a few sentences in the progressive form to say what you were playing and doing.
- You can use your answers from yesterday's task to help you.