English: Vocabulary warm-up

Match the word meaning to the description given below:

Abandon

Opaque

Reliable

Drab

The opposite of bright or exciting

Something or someone who is trustworthy

Cannot be seen through (or unclear)...

To leave or desert someone

English: Grammar re-cap

Today we are looking at active and passive:

- Active voice

Eva kicked the ball.

Paul licked the lolly.

A sentence is active if the subject of the sentence performing the action..

- Passive voice

The ball was kicked by Eva.

The lolly was licked by Paul.

A sentence is written in the passive voice when the subject has something done to it by something or someone.

English: Grammar task

Rewrite the active sentences into passive sentences and vice versa (that means the other way round):

Active

I ate the spaghetti.

They played a game.

You drew a picture.

Passive

The housework was completed by the man.

The ball was chased by a dog.

The window was broken by Emily.

English: Writing

Write a short advertisement for the library. Think about:

- How is it different from a normal library.
- What makes people visit it?
- In your opinion, what makes a good book?

The Greatest Library

The books had minds of their own...

This was no ordinary library.

Books about knights would gallop all over the library, bravely and boldly ordering the other books around. Books about wild animals would occasionally roar and bite other books.

Ext: Try to use the new vocabulary you have learnt: Abandon, Opaque, Reliable, Drab and try to include both the active and passive voices.

English: Comprehension

Log on to readtheory.org and complete at least one comprehension task. You can do more if you wish.

Your username is your firstname_lastname

(if you have two last names – e.g. John Smythe-Everett, your username will just use the first part: john_smythe).

The password is Handsworth1
